SUPERIOR COURT OF WASHINGTON FOR PIERCE COUNTY

KEVIN DOLAN and a class of similarly situated individuals,

Plaintiffs,

v.

KING COUNTY, a political subdivision of the State of Washington,

Defendant.

NO. 06-2-04611-6

ORDER DENYING FULL PARTY STATUS FOR DRS AND GRANTING LIMITED INTERVENTION FOR DRS

Matter Before The Court

This matter came before the Court on the Motion to Intervene by the Washington State Department of Retirement Systems (DRS). The Court has considered the records and files contained herein, including the following:

1. Motion to Intervene by the Washington State Department of Retirement Systems;
2. Declarations of Marcie Frost dated 4/22/13 and 5/6/13;
3. Declarations of Anne Hall dated 3/28/13, 4/22/13 and 5/7/13, including all exhibits;
4. Defendant King County's Opposition to Motion to Intervene;

- 1 5. Declaration of Dwight Dively, including all exhibits;
- 2 6. Declaration of Tim Filer;
- 3 7. Plaintiffs' Opposition to Motion to Intervene;
- 4 8. Declaration of David F. Stobaugh;
- 5 9. Declaration of Stephen K. Festor; and
- 6 10. Reply in Support of Motion to Intervene by DRS.

8 The Court also heard the argument of counsel for DRS, the plaintiffs, and the defendant
9 King County.

10 Based on the foregoing, the Court makes the following rulings:

11 Ruling - Full Party Status Denied

12 DRS's motion to intervene ~~does not~~ <sup>attempt to</sup> seek "full party" status. DRS's motion states that it
13 wants to be heard on its objections to the parties' proposed class action settlement that are set
14 forth in its motion and its two-page objection that has already been filed and to appeal if the 15 Court overrules those objections and approves the proposed settlement.

16 DRS's request to participate in this case as a "full party" is untimely. In addition,
17 allowing DRS to intervene as a "full party" at this stage of the litigation would also unduly
18 complicate and delay the proceedings, and would greatly prejudice the parties. This action has 19 been stayed as to all matters other than those related to the consideration of the proposed
20 settlement and objections thereto and to the implementation of the settlement if it is approved.

21 DRS's request for "full party" status is denied.

22 Ruling - Limited Intervention Granted

23 The parties do not object to limited intervention by DRS to have its objections, already
24 filed, heard by the Court and then appeal if the Court approves the settlement and DRS wishes
25 to appeal. Indeed, the parties intended that the Settlement Agreement already confers this 26 limited intervention.

1 The Court grants DRS limited intervention to have the DRS objections to the settlement
2 already filed heard by the Court and to appeal if the Court approves the settlement and DRS
3 wishes to appeal. The Court finds this limited intervention for DRS is sufficient to protect the 4 interests DRS has articulated in its motion and its objection.

5 DRS's objections will be heard along with those of objecting class members on June 7,
6 2013. Plaintiffs and King County are required to respond to DRS's objections and those of
7 objecting class members by May 31, 2013. The Court will hear oral argument on the objections
8 and responses on June 7, 2013.

9 DRS will be subject to this Court's orders, if any, requiring the implementation of the 10 Settlement Agreement, if the settlement is approved.

11 DATED this 10th day of May, 2013.
